

MEDIA STATEMENT

NEW LEADER FOR BRISTOL-MYERS SQUIBB IN AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND

Melbourne, Australia, Tuesday 16 October 2018: Bristol-Myers Squibb is pleased to announce the appointment of Neil MacGregor as General Manager of Australia and New Zealand.

Neil takes up his new role at Bristol-Myers Squibb's Australian headquarters in Melbourne in December 2018. He will be responsible for continuing the company's strong business performance with a goal of delivering transformational medicines to Australian patients.

"I'm thrilled to be leading the Australian business. It's such an exciting time at Bristol-Myers Squibb as we continue to pioneer research and push the boundaries of scientific understanding to deliver the next wave of therapies to patients who need them. However, it's much more exciting for the many thousands of patients in Australia that may have new options in the future as we learn more about different ways we can tackle serious diseases" said Neil.

"This is a fantastic opportunity to work with a very dedicated and energized team of employees in Australia, across all functions, to truly make a difference for Australian patients"

He also said, "Following the recent historic news that the Nobel Prize in medicine was awarded to medical researchers from both the US and Japan for immunotherapy discoveries that have revolutionised cancer care, I look forward to leading the team in continuing our world leading clinical research program here in Australia."

Neil began his career with Bristol-Myers Squibb in 2012 as Head of Finance of Australia and New Zealand. Most recently, since 2015, he served as the Head of Finance for Japan, Korea and Taiwan, driving change across complex business contexts and brings a deep understanding of the Asia-Pacific business environment.

Neil's appointment demonstrates Bristol-Myers Squibb's commitment to modern career development. In appointing the role of General Manager, Australia and New Zealand, an extensive search was conducted across multiple geographies, and included both internal and external candidates. Neil's appointment is a testament to the strong succession planning and leadership pipelining of Bristol Myers Squibb. He is a dynamic and energetic leader with a commercially approach to business.

Previously, Neil spent nine years at AstraZeneca in a variety of Finance roles within Commercial, Corporate and Manufacturing functions in UK, Japan, South Africa & Sub-Saharan Africa. Neil holds a Bachelor of Science

-ENDS-

About Bristol-Myers Squibb

Bristol-Myers Squibb is a global biopharmaceutical company whose mission is to discover, develop and deliver innovative medicines that help patients prevail over serious diseases. For more information about Bristol-Myers Squibb, visit us at www.bms.com/au or follow us on LinkedIn.

For more information, please contact Alison Melville, Head of Public Affairs, Australia & New Zealand (0477 309 012) or Alison.melville@bms.com

